IN RE: : Chapter 11

Debtor(s) : Bky. No. 09-11207ELF

ORDER REASSIGNING CASE

AND NOW, this 23rd day of February 2009, the two above-captioned chapter 11 cases having been filed on February 22, 2009, and randomly assigned to the docket of the undersigned judge,

AND, attached to these bankruptcy petitions were statements that these debtors are affiliated with, inter alia, Philadelphia Newspapers, LLC,

AND, Philadelphia Newspapers, LLC has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy under chapter 11, docketed at Bankr. No. 09-11204 and assigned to the docket of the Honorable Jean K. FitzSimon,

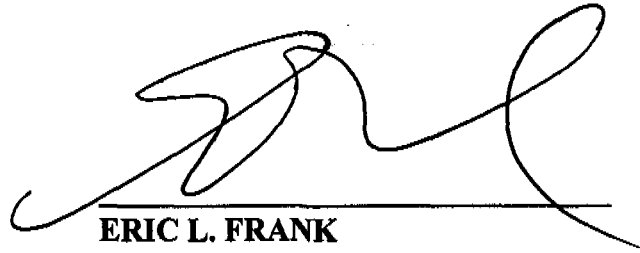

AND, pursuant to Local Bankr. R. 5001-1(c):

(2) If the filed papers indicate a later case is related to an earlier filed case, the clerk shall assign the later case to the same judge to whom the earlier case is assigned and notify the judge of that assignment. If the judge receiving the later case is of the opinion that a relationship does not exist, the receiving judge may refer the case to the clerk for assignment by the blind lottery method in the same manner as if it were a newly filed case.

(3) Whether the relationship between the later case and the earlier case is or is not indicated on the filed papers, (A) any interested party may file a motion requesting the judge to whom a case is assigned to reassign the case to another judge, and (B) the judge to whom a case is assigned may determine that a case is related to another numbered case or is more appropriately heard by another judge and may, with the consent of the receiving judge, refer the case to the receiving judge.

(emphasis added),

AND, as the chapter 11 case of Philadelphia Newspapers, LLC is the earlier filed case, it is hereby ordered (with the consent of Judge FitzSimon) that these two cases are reassigned to the docket of the Honorable Jean K. FitzSimon.
